

THE LINCOLN HIGHWAY IS OURS AND WILL BE ONLY AS BIG AS WE MAKE IT

DIXON HAS BIG JOB AHEAD OF HER IF SHE IS TO GET FULL VALUE FROM THE RICHES THAT ARE HELD UNDER HER NOSE—OPPORTUNITY IS KNOCKING AT OUR DOOR.

BUILD PERMANENT ROADS MARK THE ROUTE AND NAME THE STREET

Lincoln Highway Can Be Made of Great Commercial Value to Dixon if We Develop It Sufficiently—Here is a Chance for the Boosters to Get All the Action They Could Wish For.

Besides many other mighty fine followed out here to advantage, all things about Dixon, too numerous though big signs would serve. These to detail now, the grand old city is signs or arches would be illuminated on the Lincoln highway. This throb- at night, for there will be a great, bing, beautiful, enterprising city, the deal of night travel over such a road city that is soon to number 20,000 as the Lincoln highway will be. At souls, is one of the important links the western entrance to Dixon on in that vast stretch of over three thousand miles of road that is the nation's Main Street. What are we going to do to realize on this riches that we find at our front doors?

Mr. Pardington said last night: "The Lincoln highway is yours and will be as big as you make it." We guess Dixon needs no other word. We will MAKE IT BIG.

Re-Name Galena Avenue.
The first thing that Dixon must do and the city commissioners can get a white mark to their credit by going right ahead and doing it without troubling the workers, who have other things to do, to get out petitions and bring the pressure of public sentiment to bear—is to re-name Galena avenue the Lincoln Way. Galena is the logical street to honor with this name, for it is the street that brings the highway through the most thickly settled and business part of town. There are about eleven blocks of the transcontinental highway on this street, as well as the bridge. It would be confusing and necessitate renumbering houses to name more than one street Lincoln Way. Galena will be the Lincoln Way from one end to the other.

Improve Country Roads.
The next thing, and in fact the most important thing we must do, is to see that Lee county's share of the highway has improved roads. It is not beyond the possible to build a concrete or brick highway from Dixon to the DeKalb county line and if the county will unite and rise in their might this thing can be accomplished, and we have no hesitancy in saying that it will be preeminently the greatest accomplishment in the history of the county. DeKalb is now formulating plans to meet us at the county line with a concrete road. If we make up our minds to do it, we can, and if we can make ourselves realize the value it will be to us, Lee county will have the prettiest, finest stretch of boulevard in the middle west. We can't hope to beat some of the eastern states, for they are scores of years ahead of this part of the country on the good roads proposition and there are thousands of miles of the finest kind of brick and concrete pavements in the rural districts there. The road that now runs east from Dixon, except for a short distance, is simply abominable. There is no use excusing it—it's rotten. The road west from Dixon to the county line, a short distance, should also be improved, though it is now macadamized, but as bumpy as a storm at sea. DeKalb county is planning to bond itself for hundreds of thousands of dollars to put through their plans for improving their roads.

Emphasize Dixon.
There will be thousands of tourists using the Lincoln highway even this coming summer and 1915 will see an unusually large amount of transcontinental traffic, caused by the Panama-California exposition. It is up to us to make every one of these strangers who pass through the city remember Dixon as one of the bright spots of the trip. It is a wonderful opportunity to advertise at a cost of almost nothing. We must make the users of the highway realize that Dixon has done her full share toward giving them the nation wide boulevard that they enjoy. We must show them that Dixon is a good place to spend their money in and a good place to live in. At both the east and west entrances to the city there must be huge signs that will not only extend them a welcome but will tell them a few of the bigger things about the city. In a town in Pennsylvania the women have erected a mammoth archway of welcome, under which the tourists must pass. This idea is good and could be

SNOW AND BLIZZARD PARALYZES THE EAST

TRAFFIC AND SHIPPING DELAYED—MANY STATES HAVE 18 INCHES OF SNOW.

(By the Associated Press)
New York, Feb. 14—A heavy snow which is general all over the south-western, middle and New England states began falling here last night. In some places it is six inches deep, and is still falling today. Philadelphia has seven inches and many other parts of Pennsylvania is blanketed with 28 inches.

A blizzard and 18 inches of snow have paralyzed traffic in Schenectady. Traffic is delayed all along the coast and shipping is hampered. A number of steamers due today have been reported by wireless that they cannot get in until Monday or Tuesday at the soonest.

(By The Associated Press)
Washington, Feb. 14—Most of the northwestern states are also in the grip of the snow storm. Cold winds with great velocity are sweeping them and lower temperature is forecasted.

ELECT DELEGATES TO AMBOY MEETING—HOPE TO GET COMMISSION TO LOWER RATES.

Nelson, Feb. 14—Special—The telephone subscribers in this vicinity held a meeting at the school house here Friday. Many representative men were present and the township was well represented.

The speaker of the day, Atty. W. L. Leach of Amboy, missed his train. W. Harden was elected chairman and M. C. Stitzel secretary. The connections and could not attend. A number of the meeting seemed to be to stand out on the petition that had been presented the Dixon Home Telephone Co. Phone users are against the new rise in toll rates and seem determined to do anything they see to get them reduced. Wilbur M. Phillips was elected delegate to meet the Amboy committee that is working along the same line and whose object is to take the matter up with the new state utilities commission who, it appears, is the only appeal.

SENATOR BORAH ON REPUBLICAN PARTY

IDAHO'S SENATOR ANALYZES PRESENT POLITICAL SITUATION IN SPEECH

GIVEN AT LINCOLN DAY DINNER

Organization of the Party Must Be Servant to the People at All Times, Says Borah

(By the Associated Press)

New York, Feb. 14—Senator William E. Borah of Idaho, thinks those who saw disruption of the republican party in its failure last November to carry more than two states misread the signs. Analyzing the wreck Thursday night at the Lincoln day dinner of the republican club of New York, Mr. Borah characterized the process within the party as evolution, not dissolution.

The subject of Senator Borah's address was "The Republican Party, and at the outset he made it clear that he spoke for those who think this name an asset not to be surrendered, but one under which the voters in a grim and conclusive way, have shown that the organization of a party at all times must be the servant, not the master. The terrible wreck last fall, he said "proved that political parties, regardless of their past achievements and traditions must be kept and conducted on a high plane, and held in touch with the demands and needs of the hour."

The revival of party strength and the resurrection of party power that Mr. Borah professed to see in the more recent election in Michigan, Maine, New Jersey, Maryland and other states, where he said the third party voter had returned to the republican ranks, were attributed not to organization or leadership, but to the fact that "those who had dared to tear down had dared to rebuild, and to do upon broad lines and in harmony with the true historic bent of the organization; with past achievements, and future obligations."

"There is no mistaking what all this means. It means that the voters of the party are too independent to condone what they conceive to be a mistake or a wrong, and too wise to abandon permanently, the name, traditions, prestige and honor, that they and their forebears have established and built up through fifty years of relentless political warfare."

"It means that no man or class of men can turn the Republican party from its true course and drag it down from its exalted station among the great political factors of modern times, and it means, moreover, that no man or class of men can wreck or destroy it. If every assumed leader and every committeeman of the party from ocean shore to ocean shore should resign tonight and announce that the hour of dissolution was at hand, before the sun had set upon another day, the rank and file would seize the banner where 't fell and straightway entrust it to loyal hands."

Mr. Borah contended that all those who sought honor and place at the hands of the last convention of the party in Chicago would have been glad to have utilized the party as a party had the results been satisfactory, and that those who afterward left the party had expressed no doubt of the wisdom of its established policies, or the integrity and purpose and progressive bent of its membership, or as to the efficiency of the party as an instrument for progressive legislation and administration.

"The fact that they were there seeking honors at its disposal, proved conclusively that they were in accord with its principle, had faith in its policies, and relied upon it as an instrumentality of progressive advancement," said Mr. Borah. "To suppose otherwise would be to charge them with duplicity and insincerity, a charge which I would be the last to make."

Mr. Borah said he had been one of those who entertained the opinion, after the Chicago convention, that "majority of the voters were one way and the organization another." The sincere men differed,

SANITATION OF ZONE IS BIG PROBLEM

GOVERNOR OF THE CANAL ZONE AGAIN FACES IMPORTANT QUESTION.

(By the Associated Press)

Sanitation Problem.

Sanitation of the Isthmus is also again looming up as one of the problems of the canal. While not as acute as it was during the early days of construction, it is now an important matter by reason of the great extent of Gatun Lake formed by the closing of the spillway at Gatun dam.

Gatun Lake at the 85 foot level at which it is proposed to maintain this portion of the great canal, has covered an area of a little more than 120 square miles of jungle. As the waters rose there backed up in many out of the way places much backwater that is more or less stagnant. Some of this is already being oiled by the sanitary division but much of it is in isolated places and difficult of access.

The oiling squads will have to be kept at work indefinitely and this will make sanitation one of the important functions of the permanent government of the canal zone. To aid in the work it is hoped to acquire a five mile strip around that portion of Gatun lake not within the borders of the zone.

Electrification

Preparations for the electrification of the Panama railroad across the Isthmus of Panama practically will be completed this spring when the high tension installation is finished. Already there have been erected many of the track span bridges which will carry the power across the Isthmus.

It is planned to manufacture at the electrical power plant at Gatun about 7000 horse power, which will be distributed to all the points along the Isthmus for light and power purposes. Much of this will be transmitted to the permanent headquarters town of Balboa at the Pacific entrance to the canal where the large navy and other repair shops will be located.

It is not the intention of the government to immediately undertake the complete electrification of the railroad for the reason that at present there is no knowing the amount of traffic the road will carry across the Isthmus after the opening of the canal. Should this prove sufficiently large to warrant the expense of making the change the railway will altogether cease to be a steam road.

In anticipation of this possibility the track and span bridges are being erected and they are all amply wide enough to permit the construction of a two track road from Panama to Colon.

A.R. PARDINGTON TELLS DIXON PEOPLE FACTS CONCERNING LINCOLN HIGHWAY

VICE PRESIDENT OF LINCOLN HIGHWAY ASSOCIATION INSPIRES DIXON PEOPLE TO DO THEIR SHARE TOWARD SUCCESSFUL BUILDING OF MONUMENT.

WILL BE LONGEST AND MOST BEAUTIFUL HIGHWAY IN ALL THE WORLD

Dixon is Fortunate Enough to Be on This Main Artery of Travel for U. S. and the Benefit to This City Will Be Great—Funds Are Needed For the Completion of the Road and All Patriotic Citizens Will Come Forward.

A. R. Pardington, vice president of the Lincoln Highway association, in some mysterious manner, during a brief space of time and with a few well selected words last evening injected a large quantity of something of surprising strength that has inspired Dixon to great enthusiasm. Dixon has at last awakened to the great fact that she is on the Lincoln highway, the longest and to be the greatest, most beautiful highway in the world, bar none.

Mr. Pardington was introduced by Mayor Brinton to an intensely interested crowd at the city hall last evening, and he devoted an hour to details of what the Lincoln highway is, what it will be and how it will be. His talk was comprehensive and unexaggerated, and he had a hall full of Lincoln highway boosters when he got through. H. C. Ostermann, consul at large for the Lincoln highway, also gave a short talk which supplemented the address of Mr. Pardington.

In brief, the meeting last evening brought out the following points of interest:

The Lincoln highway inside the boundaries of Lee county must be marked with the emblem of the highway.

The roads over which the Lincoln highway passes in this county must be improved and made permanent.

The roads and streets in this county traversed by the highway should be named Lincoln Way insofar as is possible.

Dixon and Lee county citizens must donate their share toward the general Lincoln highway fund of ten millions of dollars, which must be raised.

Dixon must do everything in her power to aid the great movement.

Mr. Pardington told of the origin of the scheme to build this great monument to the man whom he characterized as the greatest patriot this country ever produced.

He portrayed the great road, 3,389 miles long, the transcontinental highway of this great nation, which Dixon is fortunate enough to be on and which location Dixon has attained through no effort or expense. Among some of the details which his talk brought forth are these:

Sixty per cent of the population of the United States will be tributary to the Lincoln highway. This trail will be blazed from New York to Market street, San Francisco, with the sign, the red, white and blue and the big "L," so that a tourist may travel the entire length of it without the need of a map, road book or a question. He will simply follow the red, white and blue. Hundreds of miles of the road will be built of permanent brick or concrete, or both, as the highway in Ohio has now nearly all the distance across the state. The highway will be further beautified by rows of trees, shrubs, vines, monuments of various kinds to make it a mammoth lane of beauty. Out of every hundred autos that use the road, eighty per cent will be machines owned in the community and so the road will be most used and most beneficial to the people who build it. The advertising value alone to each town through which the highway goes will be tremendous. The Lincoln highway is a young organization and during its short space of life has taken gigantic strides toward success. It only began its active work September 14th last of last year, and it is now an assured fact, not a wild dream that might come true in a decade or two. The organization has no selfish end in view. The hundreds of workers in the thirteen states through which the road passes are putting in their time and money at their own expense and the big sums toward the general fund are being donated by business men throughout the country in proportion to the benefits that the public in general receive. Over half of the money that is needed to finance the road is pledged.

Mr. Pardington appealed to the citizens of Dixon and Lee county to do their share and add their mite to help the work, and as the people of this community are public spirited, patriotic and have good business sense, we have no doubt that his appeal will be answered in a very substantial way.

To become a member of the Lincoln Highway association one has only to subscribe $5. In return for this he will get a certificate of membership that is good for life; he will get a medal design which indicates his membership that is meant to be fastened to the radiator of an automobile, and also a mounted tablet that can be used for a paper weight, screwed to the automobile dash or hung on the wall, also inscribed with the design of the association. These will be proof that person's aid of the most commendable movement of a century and will be of sufficient value to preserve through generations. It is a great honor to be permitted to be a factor in the promotion of this wonderful enterprise. Dixon people will be glad to do their share.

Rev. A. B. Whitcombe, local consul for the Lincoln Highway association, is authorized to receive subscriptions.

MEXICAN SHEET ATTACKS WILSON

EL IMPERIAL SAYS U. S. PRESIDENT LACKS HONOR AND HE IS BLAMED FOR BANK FAILURES.

Mexico City, Feb. 14—The El Imperial, a newspaper published here, under big front page headlines has an attack on President Wilson and the U. S. government.

The paper says of Wilson: "His word lacks honor, as he does himself." The story charges Wilson with responsibility of failure of 150 banks because of "Iniquitous Mexican policy" and also raps the U. S. government for recognizing the new Peruvian government immediately after its successful revolt.

And we can also imagine the surprise of the parents of a certain Dixon young lady one evening this week when their daughter retired at the unusual hour of 10. (No one will appreciate this but herself. The young lady dared us to do it—and we never took a dare).

Will Ford, the barber, has a dandy joke he's handing to his patrons. We won't spoil it by printing it, but those who wish to hear some real good comedy can be accommodated by asking Bill: "When are you going to move?" Honestly, dear reader, it's a fine joke. His phone is No. 1003.

After listening to the remarks of some of the "curb" firemen at yesterday morning's blaze at the Dixon laundry we have come to the conclusion that the country is losing the services of some great generals. Undoubtedly if the officials of some of the larger cities could have heard the things we did a lot of fire chiefs who have spent years in the business would be out looking for jobs while their places would be filled by talented, natural born chieftains from this city.

Imagine the disappointment of the poor, tired bank clerk as he contemplates the calendar, thereby learning that Washington's birthday falls on Sunday this year.

Possibly, however, some arrangement can be made to have the legal holiday go over until Monday.

PARIS WOULD HAVE BIG BREAD FAMINE

IN CASE OF WAR FRENCH CAPITAL WOULD FACE BAD SITUATION.

(By the Associated Press)

Paris, Feb. 14.—In case of war the city of Paris would probably find itself without bread within four days. This alarm has been sounded by the municipal council after a thorough study of the possibilities and the announcement has resulted in a peculiar demand for measures to assure an ample food supply in case of conflict. The minister of war and the under-secretary of state have decided to take up the whole question with the municipal council for further study with an endeavor to solve the problem.

Military authorities point out that during the first weeks of mobilization in case of war all railroad trains and lines would be reserved exclusively for military trains and no supplies for the civic population could be transported. It has been proposed among other things to buy 10,000 tons of flour to be kept in a public warehouse and to be used as necessity arises. It is suggested that the state contribute immediately $90,000 as a first payment toward this and the municipality $40,000. While the problem of a sufficient supply of flour and wheat is considered most important the authorities are also planning to conserve stocks of other necessary things including wood, coal and oil.

If, says Commander Drjant, a well known retired army official, an order of mobilization were given on Thursday, Paris would have neither bread, milk nor meat at the beginning of next week. Another important question is what Parisians would drink were Paris invested and cut off from its water supply. This is a phase of the problem the commission which has been studying the subject might consider thoroughly. We have arrived at a time when all problems of national defense must be considered without delay.

Consul General Mason has brought together the figures of French export to the United States during 1913. They were $140,016,549, or 13,733,384 larger than in 1912, thus passing the total of any previous year. The net gain in three years has been $21,000,000.

The reports for the Paris district show that the exports of automobiles and automobile accessories, which amounted to $1,209,413 in 1912, was cut in half during 1913. The exports of paintings, precious stones and hides show considerable advances, and the increase in textiles was about sixty per cent. Paris exports have risen in eleven years from $41,000,000 to $80,000,000.

Circuit court was adjourned yesterday by Judge Heard until Monday at 9 a. m. when the petit jury again reports.

SENATOR BORAH ON REPUBLICAN PARTY

he said, as to the policy best to pursue.

"It seemed to some," said Mr. Borah, "that it was wiser to get out and fight from the outside. It seemed to others who were equally sincere that it was lacking in strategy and effectiveness if not in courage to give up the vantage of name and prestige, of honor and achievement when the sole fault was one of organization and not in membership, or policies. I do not criticize those who chose the former method. For whatever charge may be made as to the ambitions of individuals, no honest man would doubt the high purposes and patriotism of four million voters. But I do say that every obstacle which stood in the way of success of the cause as we viewed it has been completely removed.

"There has never been a time when the machinery of the party was so completely subject to the direction of the voters. Of course this will be denied by those who would destroy the party whether it does right or whether it does wrong, but it will not be denied by those who investigate and sincerely want to see the party reorganized and re-established and made to do the service of the people in this country as it performed that service in its best days."

The reduction of southern representation in the party convention; the recognition of the credentials of primary elected delegates, and the removal of certain other subjects of dissension, already assured by the action of the national committee of the party, will do away with "shameless scenes of Chicago and Baltimore," according to the speaker. He believed the outcome would be platform embodying the convictions and aspirations of the people, and candidates who will receive nominations without obligations or pledges to any interest or power than the people themselves. In the opinion of Mr. Borah platforms are utterly misleading and worthless if drafted as they have been in the past.

"I do not want a platform of expediency, a platform adopted in a formal manner even if it reads right," said Mr. Borah. "I want to know where the republican party in fact stands and is going to stand on these great issues. In a moot convention you could never know. I want to see a downright fight where there is something more than paper and ink and sounding praises at issue, an absolute contest where the people take part, so that when the result is recorded we will have the real sentiment and the real convictions of the party, and knowing them we can square ourselves for the future. I want either the inspiration of Lodi or the conclusiveness of Waterloo.

"I do not want a platform drawn by bosses or even by appointed leaders, weeks in advance of the convention, and carried like a stuffed and perfumed Egyptian mummy to the place of meeting with which to confuse the multitude for another season, but a living platform, voicing the purposes and hopes of men and women who have rubbed against the realities of life and the actual conditions of today. I made up my mind long since that if at any time I have to abandon the name which the sainted Lincoln chose with which to conjure the hosts of freedom and progress, if I must finally give over the proud memories which cluster about those days, it will be after the majority of the party has so spoken and upon questions of policy in a contest that no one will ever misunderstand and at a time when there can be no mistake as to the issues.

"The next republican national convention will be in the hands and under the control of the voters of the party, those who believe in the republican party, who respect its traditions and have helped to make its history. I am not one of those who believe the republican party has made no mistakes, but I am one of those who no doubt that under a full and free expression of the voters it will again become a powerful instrument for good."

WILL CONTINUE LAUNDRY.

Harry Humphrey of the Dixon Steam laundry, which was gutted by fire yesterday, stated today that as soon as possible he will find another location for temporary occupancy while the Erwin building is being repaired and that all laundry which was in the fire, most of which can be saved, will be re-laundered and returned to the owners.

"Pape's Diapiesin," Settles Sour, Upset Stomachs in Five Minutes

Time it! Pape's Diapiesin will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach surely within five minutes.

If your meals don't fit comfortably or what you eat lies like a lump or lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness, or intestinal griping. There will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapiesin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.

LARGER EMIGRATION EXPECTED BY U. S.

AMERICAN GOVERNMENT ASKS REPORT FROM ITS CONSULS.

(By the Associated Press)

London, Feb. 14.—That the government at Washington is making preparations for increased emigration from Europe to the Pacific coast of the United States at the opening of the Panama Canal is indicated by a request to American consuls in Europe to furnish the department of labor with reports of the plans being made by transportation agencies to handle the increased traffic. The consuls have also been called upon to supplement the work of special emigration commissioners who have visited Europe lately, with reports of the quantity and quality of the expected immigration.

European representatives of American railroads welcome this action on the part of the American government as indicating the beginning of a movement by Washington to encourage the high type of emigration which England and Germany are making every effort to divert to their own colonies. These governments offer every inducement to steamships and railroads to handle the traffic while the agents of the American transportation concerns complain that the American government adopts a negative policy, which while effectively shutting out many undesirable immigrants, also discourages the solid type of immigrant for whom there is still much room in this country.

Alexander Jackson, who has represented a large American railroad system for many years in Europe, has suggested to the local American consulates that the United States prepare booklets setting forth the agricultural and business possibilities of the various states for free distribution in Europe. He believes that such booklets backed by the government imprimatur would lead to a great increase in the numbers of immigrants who are looking for farms or business openings rather than for ordinary jobs.

Club life for the workingman is to be developed on a large scale in London. A central labor palace is to be erected at a cost of over $250,000 which in addition to providing meeting halls for the trade unions is to include a moving picture theatre for the display of labor scenes. A large organ and orchestra will furnish music written around the pictures. Arrangements have been perfected with unions in France, Belgium and Germany for the exchange of films, a pool of $350,000 having been formed for this purpose. There are also to be dining rooms where orchestras will play during meals a smoking lounge and other comforts of a first rate club. One of the chief features will be stores where provisions of all kinds will be sold to members and at times of strikes given away instead of strike pay.

The promoters believe that the undertaking will pay its own way. The scheme has the official support of the London Trades Council, which represents 120 unions, with a membership of 200,000. It is expected that many other unions, especially the smaller ones, now outside the jurisdiction of the council, will also join.

According to a report issued by the Board of Trade, supplemented by data supplied by trades unions organized workers have lost nearly $90,000,000 in wages from stoppages due to disputes during the last ten years. To this has been added a very large amount distributed in strike pay. In the same period the working classes as a whole have secured advances in wages estimated at $75,000,000. Of every hundred strikes or other disputes recorded in the years under review 50 per cent were won by the employers, 25 per cent by the workers and the other 25 per cent were compromised.

In this day and age it is almost impossible to find a young man who is thorough in the work he does. Any young man who is honest and thorough in his work stands a good chance of owning a business of his own in a few years.

CHILDREN'S EYES

If the little girl complains of head aches, is backward in her studies, or does not like to study, it is probable that she has some eye defect. Of course it could be from some other cause, but to be on the safe side you should have US examine her eyes at once. A slight correction while they are young will effect a permanent cure, eliminating the wearing of glasses later.

Peoria Avenue Club

The Peoria Avenue Reading club will meet with Mrs. Batchelder on Monday.

Addressed Woman's Club

Rev. F. D. Stone went to Rock Falls this afternoon where he delivered an address on Lincoln before the Woman's club.

Parlor Club

The Parlor club of the O. E. S. will be entertained Monday afternoon in Masonic hall, with Mrs. Steven Youngman and Mrs. Jerry Raymond, hostesses.

Chicken Supper for Boys.

The first of a series of suppers and entertainments for the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A. will be held at the association tonight. A chicken supper will be served, followed by a short talk by J. P. Bailey.

Shoe Social

The Shoe social given at the West Side Congregational church last evening, proved a social and financial success, $32 being cleared. The rooms were prettily decorated in red hearts and cupid and red shoes. A valentine box caused much merriment. A short program was greatly enjoyed.

Young Ladies Entertained

The Young Ladies Aid Society of St. James church entertained their friends last evening and also added $27 to their treasury. The program which consisted of readings by Miss Edna Ware and two plays was greatly enjoyed and the box social was held at the school house.

To Celebrate Birthdays.

On Monday evening, Feb. 23rd, the local G. A. R. post and Relief Corps will join in a celebration of the birthdays of George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, U. S. Grant and General Sherman. There will be appropriate programs and a large attendance is predicted. This idea of honoring a group of America's famous statesmen and soldiers is a good one.

21st Birthday Anniversary

Harold Drew, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Drew, yesterday attained his majority, being 21 years of age. Last evening twelve young men were entertained at dinner at his home. The pleasant affair was a surprise to Mr. Drew.

The Drew home was prettily decorated for the occasion, red hearts, cupid, and red carnations being used, and red candles.

Friday, the 13th of February also proved to be the birthday anniversary of Dudley Friedline, one of the guests. After the dinner the young men enjoyed the performance of a handsome stick pin in token of esteem. After dinner the company of young men enjoyed the performance at the Family theatre.

Engagements Announced.

Misses Edith and Helen Vail entertained with a Valentine dinner last evening at the home of Mrs. H. M. Martin. The table was appropriately decorated for the occasion and during the festivities Mrs. E. G. Ruehman announced the engagement of her sister, Miss Edith Eleanor Vail, to Lewis Wood Drummond and Miss Helen Blanche Vail to Melvern E. Overmier. The double wedding will take place in June.

Married Today.

Stacey M. Green of this city and Miss Velma Swain, Long Point, were quietly married by Rev. A. B. Whitcombe at the home of the groom's parents, Dr. and Mrs. S. M. Green, this afternoon, the wedding being a very quiet one because of the critical illness of the groom's mother, at whose request the ceremony was performed today. Mr. and Mrs. Green are well and favorably known here and it will be the sincere wish of many friends that their married life be happy and successful.

Entertained

Miss Utley of Sterling entertained this afternoon with a valentine party.

Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Book entertained a number of friends at their home near Prairieville last evening as a farewell to their home there, preparatory to moving to the Stager farm near Sugar Grove church.

SALAZAR SLAIN TRYING TO FLEE U. S., IS REPORT

Leader of Mexican Federals Said to Have Been Killed at Fort Bliss.

BRITISH MARINES LANDED

Armed Force Ordered to Mexico City to Guard Legation—Editor Who Attacked Wilson Now Threatens U. S. Charge.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 14.—An unverified report says Gen. Jose Ynez Salazar, leader of Mexican federals, was killed by an American soldier. Salazar was trying to escape from the Fort Bliss detention camp.

Britain Lands Marines.

Vera Cruz, Feb. 14.—Two machine guns and a barge of ammunition were taken off the British flag ship Suffolk and sent by train to the City of Mexico for the protection of the British embassy. It is reported that the American consulate that a detachment of British marines in civilian clothes accompanied the battery to man the machine guns.

John Lind and W. W. Canada, American consul, were not consulted about this move by Sir Christopher Cradock, British rear admiral, but they assume that the state department at Washington must have been advised through the British embassy in the Mexican capital.

British and German residents of the capital, as well as those of other nationalities, have been organized for defense against possible mob violence.

O'Shaughnessy Sees Danger.

City of Mexico, Feb. 14.—Impressed with the seriousness of the situation, Nelson O'Shaughnessy, American charge d'affaires, decided not to leave his post, even to visit his mother, who is dying in New York.

Germany Backs America.

Berlin, Feb. 14.—Responding to an interpellation in parliament, Doctor Zimmerman, under foreign secretary, said Secretary Bryan had notified Germany in announcing the raising of the embargo on arms of the United States' belief that no one outside Mexico could enforce a settlement of her affairs. Germany agreed with this opinion. The undersecretary, however, failed to say whether Huerta had made representations to Germany on the raising of the embargo. He held the United States acted within its right.

Diaz Miron, editor of El Imparcial, against whose insulting attacks on President Wilson Charge d'Affaires Nelson O'Shaughnessy protested, says the first time he meets Mr. O'Shaughnessy he will repeat the insults to his face. Miron, who has only one arm, is a "bad man" who has killed several persons by shooting them without warning. He has escaped punishment by pleading self-defense on account of having only one arm.

Creates Vice-Admirals.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Six vice-admirals for the American navy are authorized in a bill passed by the senate after a debate in which senators told how the commander of the American battleship fleet in Mexican waters might have to take orders from a ranking foreigner in case of joint naval operations.

The navy has been appealing for years for revival of a higher grade than rear admiral. The sea duty salary of the new official would be $11,400 under the bill.

Executes His Own Kindred.

Pearson, Chihuahua, Feb. 14.—Fate called on Capt. Rafael Martinez to execute his brother and his stepfather as robbers.

The two Mexicans and three others had been arrested for the murder of Charles Redd, an American Mormon of Colonia Juarez. Although his brother and stepfather pleaded with Captain Martinez, who commands the rebel garrison, not to execute them because of the ties of relationship, he refused to listen to their pleas.

The orders for execution were given by General Villa. The prisoners were buried where they were killed by a firing squad.

Redd was killed by the five men because he protested against a milking of his cows.

TWO 'TRUSTS' MAY DISSOLVE

American Can and Corn Products Confer With McReynolds.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Two more suits under the Sherman anti-trust law, begun last year, may be settled out of court by Attorney General McReynolds. It became known that representatives of both the American Can company and the Corn Products Refining company have appeared at the department of justice and begun negotiations which may lead to agreements without further legal proceedings.

London Actors Plan Welcome.

London, Feb. 14.—A number of actors, headed by Joe Coyne, will entertain the Giants and White Sox baseball teams with a typical American beefsteak supper in the early morning of Washington's birthday at Murray's club here. The affair will start at one minute past midnight on Sunday morning.

HANG NEWSPAPER OWNER

(By the Associated Press)

Washington, Feb. 14.—That the committee be authorized to "hang any newspaper owner who criticizes its acts" was urged by H. E. B. Joy, a Detroit manufacturer who asked the house commerce committee to appoint an interstate trade commission whose tenure of office shall be life-long. Joy wanted the law to allow manufacturers to fix retail prices of products. Chairman Adamson reminded him that the committee's power did not extend as far as hanging newspaper men.

A marriage license was issued today to John McKee of Fulton and Miss Alice R. Hardy of Morrison.

Deputy Sheriff Phillips was in Franklin Grove last evening.

New Germ Scare.

Quite a panic is spreading throughout bridge whist circles over the discovery in London that playing cards are great distributors of germs. Microscopic tests of cards used during an afternoon, it is said, reveal the presence of millions of malignant bacilli—enough, if taken internally, to kill off an entire community. It would be financially disastrous to use a brand new deck for every deal, and the use of camphor counters as a means of sterilization is suggested. Of course, no hostess would think of producing a soiled pack of cards, but after a few deals and shuffles you can easily see the germ possibilities for yourself.

DRINK HOT TEA

FOR A BAD COLD.

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Three" at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacupful at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.

THE ILLINOIS SUFFRAGE LAW

The act passed by the legislature of our state in 1913 granting to the women of Illinois the right of limited suffrage is being attacked on the grounds that its provisions are in violation of the Constitution of Illinois.

The fate of the law has been decided by the supreme court of Illinois. The case was argued before the supreme court at Springfield yesterday, and immediately after the court's return to the conference room as is its custom, the members of the court voted on the case. However, no announcement of the result was made then, but the case was referred to some member of the court to prepare the opinion.

In the ordinary course of events opinions in cases submitted to the supreme court at the present term would not be made public until the next term, which will not be until April, but in view of the great importance of and the unusual public interest in the case involving the right of women of Illinois to vote and the many serious complications which might result from delay in deciding the case it is the belief of those interested in this case that the supreme court will make public its decision some day within the next week or two.

William J. Scoun, a heavy tax payer of Chicago, filed a bill for an injunction in the superior court of Cook county, asking that the election commissioners of Chicago be restrained from expending $40,000 necessary to supply the women's ballot boxes provided for by the act and the further sum of $10,000 for extra expense of printing ballots for the primary election to be held in Chicago on February 24, claiming the act to be unconstitutional and the threatened expenditure of public funds consequently illegal. Each side of the case is represented by the ablest attorneys of Chicago and the question is being fairly presented to the court. If the act was not properly drawn or is in conflict with the provisions of the constitution of course it should be held void, and judging by past experiences with Illinois legislatures it would not be strange if there should be some fatal defects found in this law. According to newspaper reports the law was drawn by Catherine Waugh McCullough, who for many years has been Illinois' leading suffragette advocate.

It is fortunate indeed that the people of the state of Illinois are protected from the irresponsible acts of its legislature by an able and fearless supreme court. What a blessing it would be to Illinois if the legislature could adjourn for fifteen years and give us a chance to catch up on some of the laws recently enacted.

Certainly no one but the seven members of the supreme court know now whether the Woman's Suffrage act is to stand or fall, and whatever may be their decision it is the duty of every good citizen to support the court in its action and we should all be thankful for the protection afforded us through this great tribunal.

Rufus Choate, the great lawyer, once well described the duties of a judge in these words:

"He shall know nothing about parties. Everything about the case. He shall do everything for justice; nothing for himself; nothing for his friend; nothing for his patron; nothing for his sovereign. If on one side is the executive power and the legislature and the people — the sources of his honor — the givers of his bread — and on the other an individual nameless and odious his eye is to see neither, great nor small."

Henry Ford, who is sharing the profits of his big manufacturing plant with his employees, is now being severely criticized by the socialists, who claim that his action brought 75,000 men to Detroit in the hope of getting a job, when there were no jobs for them. This is enough to make the most generous philanthropist discouraged with trying to do some good.

Is Dixon going to get all the benefit it can from the Lincoln highway? Sure it is! We are going to have as fine a section of the highway as can be found in the land. Dixon now has the greatest opportunity for advertising that she ever had, and Lee county and Dixon will stand out as one of the bright spots in the whole trip across the continent.

The split republican party in the second district in Iowa have succeeded in sending another democrat to congress, when their combined vote would have easily elected the man who really represented the fundamental principles of both.

Mr. Merchant! Divide the residents of this community into two classes — those who read the Telegraph and those who don't. Which class would you rather have as your customers?

Procrastination

By WALT MASON

The fellow who's always a-going, tomorrow or day after that, to make a remarkable showing is talking, I wist, through his hat. The men who are getting the dollars and putting up oodles of hay, are those who get into the collars and strain at the harness today. I toil, and with crimson bandana remove from my forehead the sweat, while others are saying "Manana," and loafing and going in debt, and so when the times are grown harder, when famines and panics arise, the doughnuts and haws in my larder will sure be a sight for sore eyes. I haven't much faith in tomorrow; it is but an oily-tongued ghost that hands out a package of sorrow to people who bank on it most. Today is the day of achievement, the time when the harvest is ripe; tomorrow's the day of bereavement, of dreams that were born of the pipe. Today is the port of Endeavor, where garlands are drift in bloom; tomorrow's the harbor of Never, where derelicts drift to their doom. So work in the day that is present, nor count on next day or next week; the skies are now smiling and pleasant, tomorrow the tempests may shriek.

College Sport News

(By the Associated Press)

crows.

Saturday, May 23.

New York, Feb. 14—With the announcement of the date for the intercollegiate regatta at Poughkeepsie as Friday, June 26, the American college rowing season is fairly well outlined. Although there are still dates for various dual and triangular regattas yet to be fixed it is apparent that rowing is steadily increasing in popularity as a college sport. In the east, middle west and Pacific coast sections the various college and university crews are already well advanced in their indoor and machine training and are awaiting the first opportunity to dip their sweeps in lake or river.

Reports of unusually early practice rows may be expected if the present mild weather continues and once on the water the progress of both the crews and the final arrangements for the preliminary and championship regattas will be rapid. As viewed at present the 1914 rowing season promises to equal if not exceed that of the previous year. Several of the leading eastern universities already have completed tentative rowing schedules while others are still in making. Neither the United States Military Academy nor Syracuse have as yet announced their arrangements for the coming season. The dates for the Harvard, Cornell and Princeton crews have been fixed. Pennsylvania and Columbia are still working on their schedules, several dates of which have already been announced. The schedules for the various colleges supporting crews arranged from the fixed and tentative dates are as follows:

Saturday, April 18—Pacific coast intercollegiate regatta, California, Stanford and the Washington universities at Oakland, Cal.

Week of April 20-25. Harvard at Annapolis probable training races with U. S. Naval Academy crews.

Saturday, May 9. Columbia, Princeton and possibly Pennsylvania in triangular regatta, Carnegie lake, Princeton, N. J.

Saturday, May 16. American Henley regatta, Philadelphia, Pa., with races for college crews.

STEAMERS GET TO PORT (By The Associated Press) Chicago, Feb. 14—The steamers Arizona and Kansas, which were ice blocked for two days two miles out in the lake, arrived safely in port today.

Intercollegiate regatta, Hudson river, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Cornell, Brown, Ithaca, Columbia, Syracuse, Wisconsin and winner Pacific coast intercollegiate regatta.

The University of Michigan football association is already planning an elaborate campaign of preparation for next autumn in view of the Harvard game to be played at Cambridge on October 31. At a recent meeting of the candidates to discuss the hardest schedule that the Wolverines have ever attempted Director Bartolme talked on the necessity of the men seeking to their scholastic eligibility. Trainer Farrell spoke of the preparation that the Michigan athletes would have to make to meet a team of Harvard's calibre on equal terms. The Michigan trainer expresses himself as far from satisfied with the attitude of the football men toward developing themselves to the greatest extent. He advanced, in support of this, the fact that the veterans on the squad never put in an appearance at the gymnasium in the winter but they are satisfied with the condition they can attain with the fall training alone. He said that Harvard men train all winter and all summer and if Michigan does not want to be disgracefully routed in her first clash with the peer of eastern universities her athletes must show some of this spirit.

Dramatic Notes

In it excellent material for a series of pictures and proceeded to gain the author's consent to produce the film.

Through friendship with the Harry E. McManus Photo-play company of Chicago, Manager Baker was enabled to secure this remarkable series for presentation in Dixon. The first story will be seen at the opera house Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 21 and 22, and no one should miss the first installment.

AT OPERA HOUSE.

The four act drama, The Traffic, will be the attraction at the Dixon opera house on Thursday, February 19th.

The play has created more comment than all of the others dealing with a peculiar and sinister condition in American life. Rachael Marshall, the playwright, is a young woman of gentle nature and fine breeding. She is a direct descendant of Chief Justice Marshall, and her mother's father was the famous Governor Vallerie of Louisiana.

A perfect scenic production and a chosen cast of fine players have, probably, largely contributed to the sustained success of the play. But its intense human interest, its contrasts of wit, humor, pathos and tragedy are said to be the delight and the amazement of the critics who have had the privilege of witnessing The Traffic.

ROSALIND AT REDGATE.

Like its predecessor, The House of a Thousand Candles, Meredith Nicholson's new play, Rosalind at Redgate, is creating nothing short of a furor. It is said to be easily the big play of the year, in fact it will probably go down as the master piece of Mr. Nicholson.

One of the big scenes of the play shows a realistic summer storm in which the several characters get soaking wet with real water. It is said to be one of the most laughable and prettiest scenes imaginable.

Rosalind at Redgate will have its local premiere at the Dixon opera house on next Wednesday, February 18th.

PRINCESS THEATRE.

Monday night the Princess will show a two reel film entitled In the Firelight, by Marc Edmund Jones, a story staged in beautiful Santa Barbara in vivid, powerful and impressive manner and dramatized by an all star cast.

SCRAMBLE FOR TOP IN THE CITP LEAGUE

THREE CORNERED FIGHT BETWEEN SELF, REILLEY AND PETERS BOWLERS.

The race in the city bowling league is developing into a pretty three cornered fight between Self, Reilly and Peters, the slump of the freight handlers continuing in their contests with Poole's bunch last evening, Poole winning three straight. The league standing is:

	W	L	Per.
Self	23	10	697
Peters	21	12	636
Reilly	20	13	606
Poole	15	18	454

INSURANCE MEN GET INDICTMENTS TODAY

CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY—STATE SENATOR INDICTED FOR PERJURY.

(By the Associated Press)

Decatur, Ill., Feb. 14—Rufus Potts, insurance commissioner, has been indicted on a charge of conspiracy to put the Assureds Mutual Fire Insurance Co. out of business. Lucas Pfouts, an examiner in Mr. Potts' office, has also been indicted and State Senator Willis Shaw was indicted on the charge of perjury regarding property.

NEW EIGHT CLUB LEAGUE FORMED

ORGANIZED BASEBALL TO HAVE ANOTHER LEAGUE—HOPE TO FORCE MURPHY OUT.

Chicago, Feb. 14—As a result of the trouble in the National league over the disposal of John Evers as manager of the Cubs by President Murphy, and the determination of many baseball men to force Murphy out of baseball, a new eight club league under the direction of organized baseball is being planned, according to a statement by Ban Johnson, president of the American league and member of the national commission today.

New Cause for Divorce.

Why is divorce? There's a question capable of puzzling most of us, don't you think? Of course, some of us can answer it in a single sentence or two. More of us require large volumes to contain a full reply. And when we get them written some one is sure to supply a fresh cause for divorce. Take the case of that of a New York man who is demanding the dissolution of the marriage tie because his wife put soap in his soup. He has added somewhat to the literature of divorce. And he has revealed a new form of cruelty. Soap as an article of diet is not to be highly regarded. By most persons it is considered not only offensive but dangerous. And, what is more, the average man probably feels that he eats enough soap in the barber shop to satisfy his needs. Any added by his wife is likely to be regarded as superfluous and to arouse a peevishness that may not easily be stilled.

United to Crush Napoleon.

One hundred years ago the emperor of Russia and king of Prussia crossed the Rhine to invade France. The emperor of Austria, who had arrived at Cassel the evening before, went out to meet them. A conference was held and a plan of campaign drawn up for "the great week," as was termed the final effort of the Emperor Napoleon and France against the crushing mass of their enemies. The allied sovereigns resolved to force back the emperor towards Paris, but outflanking him, first on one wing, then on the other, so that at last they might throw themselves all together upon his exhausted troops, and destroy him. The forces of the allies were now divided into two great armies, one of 60,000 men under Blucher, and the other, numbering 130,000 men, commanded by Prince von Schwartzberg.

Whiteside County Nerve

The Resolution.

Lee county is getting ready to celebrate its 75th anniversary as a county, the happy event to take place February 27th. And every citizen of the county will doubtless give the anniversary some consideration; but it is doubtful if many of the citizens realize how near Dixon and the entire county came to being a "national cemetery" or something of that nature.

For, had the aspirations of the egotistical Whiteside county officials—the characteristics appear not to have changed—been realized in 1869 Lee county would have been a suburb of the national capital.

Nor is the above statement any joke, although it is to ha-ha with laughter free. The facts of the case are that in the year mentioned the Whiteside county officials offered to let the federal government establish its national capital in Whiteside county if they wished to.

Proof is obtained in Whiteside county's own history of itself, which is prefaced by the introduction: "Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation." But Whiteside county people have not been following that injunction. Had it been heeded carefully since the eventful day in December, 1869, the people of the county would know why there is so much "nerve" there. Here's the proof from the history:

The following resolution offered by Supervisor W. M. Kilgour was adopted at the December session in 1869:

Whereas, The subject of the removal of the national capital to the valley of the Mississippi is being agitated by the people of the United States, and

Whereas, that great river of the west with its navigable tributaries touches nearly every southern and western state, and washes the western boundary of our country, and

Whereas, the great central route from the New England and middle states by rail to the west and Pacific states, and to the east by way of the west, crosses the great river on the western border of Whiteside county, therefore

Resolved, by the supervisors of Whiteside county, that said board by and with the leave of the state of Illinois, do hereby offer and agree to cede to the Federal government all authority of law held or exercised by said board of supervisors in or over said county of Whiteside, provided said Federal government locate said Federal Capital within said county.

THE NE'ER-DO-WELL

A Romance of the Panama Canal
BY REX BEACH

COPYRIGHT, 1910, 1911, BY HARPER & BROTHERS

SYNOPSIS.

Kirk Anthony, son of a rich man, with college friends, gets into a fracas in a New York resort. A detective is hurt. Jefferson Locke insinuates himself into the college men's party.

Locke, aided by Kirk's friend Higgins, who thinks it a joke, drugs Kirk and puts him aboard a ship bound for Colon. Kirk is on the passenger list as Locke.

"Broke" and without baggage, aboard the ship Kirk makes the acquaintance of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Cortlandt.

Kirk's father repudiates him, and Weeks casts him out as an impostor. Kirk meets Allan, a Jamaican negro canal worker out of a job. The two are arrested by Colon police for helping to put out a fire.

Kirk and Allan are treated brutally in a Colon jail by young Alfarez, commandant of police. Allan's release is obtained by the British consul, but Weeks refuses to aid Kirk. Mrs. Cortlandt gets a phone call.

The girl tells him her name is "Chiquita." He learns later that that means only "little one." Kirk begins his work. Mrs. Cortlandt has learned who Jefferson Locke is.

Locke (real name Wellar) is a swindler and has disappeared. His description fits Kirk. The latter tries in vain in Panama to learn something of Chiquita and meets Alfarez again.

Kirk kisses Mrs. Cortlandt and is then ashamed to think he has violated Cortlandt's trust in him. Cortlandt, alarmed by his wife's absence, rescues her and Kirk from the island. In the country near Panama Kirk meets a charming Spanish girl.

The Cortlandts and Kirk plan a picnic on the island of Taboga, near Panama. Cortlandt is detained and his wife and Kirk are marooned on the island.

Kirk wins the capital prize, $15,000, in the lottery. He and Runnels make plans for advancement. The Cortlandts, having turned from the older Alfarez, intend to make Senor Garavel, a banker, president of Panama.

Alfarez's son, Kirk's foe, is engaged to Gertrude, Garavel's daughter. She is Kirk's "Chiquita." He meets her again at the opera through Mrs. Cortlandt's aid.

Kirk makes love to Chiquita. Both Cortlandt, infuriated with Kirk, goes riding with him frequently.

Kirk's father casts him off finally, and Mrs. Cortlandt obtains for him a position on the Panama railroad under Runnels, master of transportation.

Mrs. Cortlandt obtains Kirk's release by using influence with Colonel Jolson, head of the canal. The Cortlandts are intriguing to make Alfarez's father president of Panama.

She avows her love for him. Their ride and talk are interrupted by her husband. Kirk asks Garavel for his daughter's hand. The banker wishes her to marry Alfarez to advance his own ambitions. Clifford, a man from the States, asks Runnels about Kirk.

Kirk receives permission to call on Chiquita. Young Alfarez challenges him to a duel. Kirk laughs at him. Mrs. Cortlandt asks Kirk to call on her.

Cortlandt overhears his wife make love to Kirk, who tells her he loves and is engaged to Gertrude. Prompted by Mrs. Cortlandt, Garavel forbids Kirk to call on his daughter.

Kirk manages to see Chiquita. She loves him, but will obey her father. Mrs. Cortlandt blocks Kirk's and Runnels' path. Detective Williams seeks Kirk, known to him as Locke or Wellar.

During an intermission between dances at a ball Chiquita and Kirk are married, the girl returning immediately to her father's side.

CHAPTER XXI.

A Business Proposition.

EDITH CORTLANDT'S interview with the rival candidates for the Panamanian presidency formed but a part of her plan. She next held a long conversation with Colonel Jolson, to the end that on Friday morning Runnels heard a rumor that threw him into the greatest consternation. It was to the effect that instead of his succeeding to the office of superintendent he was to be retained in his old post and that Colonel Jolson's brother-in-law was to supersede him. Although the word was not authoritative, it came with sufficient directness to leave him agast. If true it was, of course, equivalent to his discharge, for it meant that he could not even continue in his former position without putting himself in a light intolerable to any man of spirit. If he did not resign voluntarily he knew that his new superior would eventually force him to do so, for Blakeley would build up an organization of his own. Inasmuch as his assistant was concerned in his threatened calamity, Runnels made haste to lay the matter before him.

"Then this would seem to end our fine hopes, eh?" said Kirk.

"Rather!" Runnels broke out bitterly. "I've worked hard, Kirk, and I deserve promotion if anybody ever did. This other fellow is a dub—he has proven that. Why, I've forgotten more railroad than he'll ever know. Every man on the system hates him and likes me; and on top of it all I was promised the job. It's tough on the wife and the kid."

He stopped to swallow his emotion and went on:

"I gave this job the best I had in me, for I had the idea that I was doing something patriotic, something for my country. That's the way they used to talk about this canal, you know. I've put in four years of hell; I've lost step with the world; I've lost my business connections in the States, and I haven't saved up any money. I can't quit, and yet I'll have to go back there and start at the bottom again. Those people don't know anything about these blanked politics. They'll think I made a failure here in government work, and I'll have to live it down. What are you going to do?"

Kirk started. "Oh, I don't know. I was thinking about you. I haven't spent much of that lottery coin. It's in the bank, all that Allan hasn't used, and half of it is yours if you'll take it. You and Mrs. Runnels and the kid and Allan and I—and one other party—will hike back home and get something else to do. What do you say?"

Runnels' voice shook as he answered: "By Jove! You're the real stuff, Anthony. I'll think it over. Who is this 'other party'?"

"My wife."

"Good Lord! You're not married?" "No, but I'm going to be. You talk about your troubles. Now, listen to mine. I'll make you weep like a fog. Briefly he told his friend of the blow that had so suddenly fallen upon him.

"You are up against it, old man," agreed Runnels when he had heard all. "Garavel has set his heart on the presidency, and he'll pay any price to get it. It's the same all over Central America. These people are mad on politics."

"But the game isn't over. I carried the ball forty yards once for a touchdown in the last ten seconds of play, and Yale won. I had good interference then, and I need it now. Somebody'll have to run ahead of me."

Runnels smiled. "I guess you can count on me. What is the plan?"

For the next half hour the two talked earnestly, their heads together, their voices low.

"I don't believe it will work, my boy," Runnels said at last. "I know these people better than you, and yet—Lord, if it does come off! Now, don't mention this rumor about Blakeley. I want to see Steve Cortlandt first."

"Cortlandt! By the way, do you happen to remember that he's to be our guest for supper tomorrow night? Kind of a joke now, trying to thank him for what he's done, isn't it?"

"Not at all. It may be our one chance of salvation; he may be the one person who can help us."

"Well," Kirk reflected, "I have a good deal to thank him for. I suppose, outside of this, and I'll go through with my part."

He proceeded at once to put his plan into execution, his first step being to rent a room at the Tivoli, taking particular care to select one on the first floor in the north wing. That evening he and Allan moved. Runnels telephoned during the evening that he had been equal to his part of the task, so there remained nothing to do but wait for the hour of the dance.

It was considerably after dark on Saturday evening that John Weeks, American consul at Colon, received a caller who came to him direct from the Royal Mail steamer just docked. At first sight the stranger did not impress Mr. Weeks as a man of particular importance. His face was insignificant, and his pale blue eyes showed little force. His only noticeable feature was displayed when he removed his hat. Then it could be seen that a wide, white scar ran from just over his temple to a point back of his right ear.

He made his name known as Williams, which, of course, meant nothing to the consul, and while drinking one of Weeks' highballs, inquired idly about the country, the climate and the people, as if in no hurry to come to his point. He studied the fat man and when he had satisfied himself, came out openly with these words:

"I'm looking for a chap named Wellar. He landed here some time late in November."

"Friend of yours?"

"Um—m—not exactly." Mr. Williams ran a hand meditatively over the ragged scar on his scalp, as if from force of habit.

"Wellar? I never heard of him." "He may have traveled under another name. Ever heard of a fellow called Locke?"

The consul's moist lips drew together, his red eyes gleamed watchfully. "Maybe I have, and maybe I haven't," said he. "Why do you want him?"

"I'm a detective, and I'm after Wellar, alias Locke, alias Anthony. He's wanted for embezzlement and assault and a few other things, and I'm going to take him." The indistinct Mr. Williams spoke sharply, and his pale blue eyes were suddenly hard and bright.

Weeks stared open mouthed for an instant. "I knew he was wrong. Embezzler, eh? Well, well!"

"Eighty thousand, that's all, and he's got it on him."

"You're wrong there. He was broke when he landed. I ought to know."

"Oh, no! He came down on the Santa Cruz. I've seen the purser. He traveled under the name of Jefferson Locke. There's no mistake, and he couldn't have blown it all. No, it's sewed into his shirt, and I'm here to grab it."

Weeks whistled in amazement. "He is a shrewd one. Eighty thousand—Lord, I wish I'd known that! He's here, all right, working for the railroad and living at Panama. He's made good, too, and got some influential friends. Oh, this is great!"

"Working, hey? Clever stuff! Do you see that?" Williams inclined his head for a fuller display of the disfigurement over his ear. "He hung that on me, with a bottle. I—nearly died."

He laughed disagreeably. "He'll go back, and he'll go back quick. How do I get to Panama?"

Weeks consulted his watch hastily. "You've missed the last train, but we'll go over together in the morning. I want to have a hand in this arrest for reasons of my own. I don't like him or his influential friends." He began to chuckle ponderously. "No; I don't like his influential friends, in particular."

While this scene was being enacted on the north side of the isthmus, Kirk Anthony over at the Tivoli hotel, was making himself ready for the ball with particular pains. Allan regarded him admiringly from many angles.

"Oh, Master H'Anthony," he exclaimed rapturously, "you are beautiful!" "Thanks! Again thanks! Now, can you remember to do as I have told you?"

"I would die!"

"Don't say that again. I'm too nervous. Here are your instructions, once more. Keep both doors to this room locked, and stand by the one to the veranda! Don't let any one in except Mr. Runnels and the man he'll bring. Don't—leave—this—spot, no matter what happens."

"I shall watch this apartment carefully, never fear."

"Remember, when I knock, so, let me in instantly, and keep your wits about you."

"H'Allen never fails, sar. But what is coming to pass?" "Never mind what is coming to pass. This is going to be a big night, my boy—a very big night." Kirk strolled out into the hall and made his way to the lobby.

Already the orchestra was tuning up, the wide porches were filling with well dressed people, while a stream of arrivals at the door was delivering the arrivals on the special from Colon. It was a very animated crowd, sprinkled plentifully with Spanish people—something quite unusual, by the way—while the presence of many uniforms gave the affair almost the brilliancy of a military function.

Kirk wandered about through the confusion, nodding to his friends, chatting here and there, his eyes fixed anxiously upon the door.

Clifford approached and fell into conversation with him.

"Great doings, eh? Garavel is going to run for president. This is a kind of political coming out party. It looked like a fight between him and General Alfarez, but they've patched it up, and the general is to have Uncle Sam's congratulations and co-operation."

"Excuse me," Anthony saw Runnels searching the room with anxiety. He hurried toward him and inquired, breathlessly:

"Have you got him?"

"Sure. I showed him your room. He'll be on the job. Has she come?"

Kirk shook his head. "Gee! I'm nervous." He wiped his brow with a shaking hand.

"Don't weaken," Runnels encouraged. "I'm beginning to believe you'll pull it off. I told my wife all about it—thought we might need her—and she's perfectly crazy. There they are now! Go to it, old man."

Into the lobby came a mixed group, in which were Andres Garavel, his daughter, Ramon Alfarez and the Cortlandts. Kirk's face was white as he went boldly to meet them, but he did his best to smile unconcernedly. He shook hands with Edith and her husband, bowed to Gertrude, then turned to meet her father's stare.

"May I have a word with you, sir?" Garavel inclined his head silently. As the others moved on he said, "This is hardly a suitable time or place, Mr. Anthony."

"Oh, I'm not going to kick up a fuss. I didn't answer your note because there was nothing to say. You still wish me to cease my attentions?"

"I do. It is her wish and mine."

"Then I shall do so, of course. If Miss Garavel is dancing tonight I would like your permission to place my name on her program."

"No!" exclaimed the banker.

"Purely to avoid comment. Every one knows I have been calling upon her, and that report of our engagement got about considerably. It would set people talking if she snubbed me. That is the only reason I came to this dance. Believe me, I'd rather have stayed away."

"And if I don't agree you will tell Mr. Garavel that I'm going to make trouble?" She said nothing, so he went on cautiously, sparring for time.

"Well, inasmuch as this seems to be a plain business proposition, suppose I think it over. When it comes time for our next dance, I'll say yes or no."

"As you please."

"Very well. The music has stopped; we'd better go in."

As they rose she laid her hand upon his arm and he felt it tremble as she exclaimed:

"Believe me, Kirk, this isn't at all easy for me, but—I can't bear to lose."

GORE TO EXPOSE PLOT?

Senator to Take Stand and Deny Woman's Charges.

Witness for Accused Testifies Robertson Threatened "to Get" Lawmaker—Jacobs Fails to Appear.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Feb. 14.—The first testimony was given in support of the contention of the defense that United States Senator Thomas P. Gore, who is being sued by Mrs. Minnie E. Bond for $50,000 damages, is the victim of a conspiracy of disappointed office seekers.

The senator today will take the witness stand to deny in detail, his attorneys declare, Mrs. Bond's allegations of indignities offered her and will make "startling revelations" as to the alleged plot.

Half a dozen witnesses for the defense testified in contradiction of testimony given by witnesses for the plaintiff. One of these, J. W. Laws, an Oklahoma City attorney, declared he was told by T. E. Robertson, an important witness for Mrs. Bond and an unsuccessful applicant for a federal position, that Gore was "drunk with power and we'll pull him from his high perch yet."

Smith Chambers, newspaper man and postmaster at Tonkawa, Okla., quoted Mr. Jacobs as saying the hotel episode was a "frame-up," referring to the immediate entry of Jacobs and Fitzpatrick at the time of the alleged attack on Mrs. Bond by the senator.

Mrs. Bond has testified that she sent a telegraph dispatch urging her husband to come to Washington immediately after the alleged attack, but that the message was not delivered until several days later. The records of the telegraph companies have been called for by the court, in so far as they deal with messages between Washington and this city. Jacobs, Mrs. Bond's chief witness, did not testify.

SOCIALISM TOPIC AT QUIZ

Mentioned for First Time in Copper Strike Inquiry.

Hancock, Mich., Feb. 14.—Socialism was mentioned for the first time as a factor in the Michigan copper miners' strike at the congressional hearing. In asking a witness if he was a member of a Socialist society, Allen F. Rees of counsel for the mining companies encountered violent objection from the union's attorneys, who said it was an effort to connect a political party with the strike.

Chairman Taylor asked Mr. Rees his object in putting the question. The latter replied that the attitude of the strikers would be shown to have had an important bearing on the refusal of the companies to recognize the Western Federation of Miners.

The witness, Gustave Strenger, refused to answer the question. The committee decided not to compel him to do so.

FOE TO CRIMINALS IS DEAD

Bertillon, Inventor of Finger Print Plan, Dies.

Paris, Feb. 14.—Alphonse Bertillon, inventor of the Bertillon finger print system of tracing criminals, died here. M. Bertillon, who was one of the foremost criminologists of modern times, suffered from anæmia. Several months ago his brother, Georges, gave up several quarts of blood, which was transfused into the veins of the stricken man, but the latter failed to respond to the treatment. M. Bertillon joined the Paris police force when a youth and for twenty years made a close study of detective methods.

WOMEN TO ASK VOTE

Suffrage Board Plans Nation Wide Demonstration.

Mass Meetings Expected to Be Held in Every City and Hamlet on May 2.

Chicago, Feb. 14.—On May 2, it is planned, women in every hamlet, town, and city in the United States will be assembled in mass meeting to ask congress to pass a federal suffrage amendment.

Announcement of this plan of the National American Woman's Suffrage association for the celebration of a national suffrage day was made by Mrs. Medill McCormick, chairman of the national congressional committee, on her return from Washington.

Mrs. McCormick also declared that differences between the National Association and the Congressional Union would be overlooked during the celebration and both would work together to further the common end.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The day was filled with victories for the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage. The members obtained the promise of a hearing on the national amendment enfranchising women from Representative Clayton, chairman of the judiciary committee, and they got permission to use the steps of the capitol for the demonstration in May.

The members who went to New York to meet the national board brought back a promise of co-operation from that body and also annexed Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont as a member of the executive committee of the union. After about three weeks of deliberation, following the filing of a request by the union, Chairman Clayton informed the suffragists that they might be heard by the judiciary committee on Tuesday, March 3, at 10 a. m. The hearing will be on Representative Mondell's bill enfranchising women, which was introduced on the first day of congress last April. The Congressional Union will bring here the leading suffrage orators from all parts of the country.

PRICES FOR FOODS SOAR

Cost of Articles Found at High Mark on October 15.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Retail prices for the articles of food, averaged upon such products as enter into the daily consumption of the families of working men, were at a higher level on October 15, 1913, than at any time in 13 years and ten months, according to a statement made public by the bureau of labor statistics of the department of labor.

The basis of calculation is taken from compilations made in 40 of the principal cities of the United States.

Prices steadily advanced between October 15, 1912, and the same date in 1913. Potatoes advanced 42.3 per cent; eggs, 14.2 per cent; round steak, 12.9 per cent; ham, 10.6 per

RASH ON ARMS ITCHED AND BURNED

Especially at Night. At Times Got No Sleep at All. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

400 South Hermitage Ave., Chicago, Ill. "I was attacked with a breaking out on the inside of my arms. It was a small rash or pimples and it itched and burned, especially at night, so that before I knew it I had made myself sore. I had to wear the finest kind of cotton underwear, no woolen at all, because the least thing irritated it and made it much worse. The rash itched and smarted until at times I got no sleep at all."

"I had this trouble and took treatments for about one year, but they only gave me relief while taking them. Then I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I got relief right away. I made a good strong lather of Cuticura Soap and washed myself every night and morning, drying myself with a good soft towel, and then applied the Cuticura Ointment. In three months I was a well man again." (Signed) H. W. Foley, Nov. 5, 1912.

TO REMOVE DANDRUFF

Prevent dry, thin and falling hair, allay itching and irritation, and promote the growth and beauty of the hair, frequent shampoos with Cuticura Soap, assisted by occasional dressings with Cuticura Ointment, afford a most effective and economical treatment. A single set is often sufficient. Cuticura Soap (25c.) and Cuticura Ointment (50c.) are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. skin book. Address postcard "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

cent; rice roast, 8.2 per cent; sirloin steak, 8.3 per cent; bacon, 8.2 per cent; poultry, 7.5 per cent; pork chops, 6.3 per cent; butter, 3.7 per cent; milk, 2.7 per cent; cornmeal, 1.7 per cent, and lard, 1 per cent. Sugar declined 8.8 per cent, and flour declined 2.6 per cent.

DYNAMITERS SEEK RELEASE

Webb, Cooley and Munsey Ask Writs—Declare Prison Sentences Are Up.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 14.—Word that applications for writs of habeas corpus to obtain their release from the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan., have been filed by Frank C. Webb of New York, Philip A. Cooley of New Orleans, and James E. Munsey of Salt Lake, convicted in the dynamite conspiracy case here, has been received by United States District Attorney Frank C. Dalley. The writs have been filed in the United States court for the district of Kansas.

The petition asking for the writs asserts that the men have served the term of imprisonment imposed on them for one crime, and that the other cumulative sentences are void. They are serving six-year sentences.

Sick Women Made Well

Reliable evidence is abundant that women are constantly being restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The many testimonial letters that we are continually publishing in the newspapers—hundreds of them—are all genuine, true and unsolicited expressions of heartfelt gratitude for the freedom from suffering that has come to these women solely through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Money could not buy nor any kind of influence obtain such recommendations; you may depend upon it that any testimonial we publish is honest and true—if you have any doubt of this write to the women whose true names and addresses are always given, and learn for yourself.

Read this one from Mrs. Waters:

CAMDEN, N.J.—"I was sick for two years with nervous spells, and my kidneys were affected. I had a doctor all the time and used a galvanic battery, but nothing did me any good. I was not able to go to bed, but spent my time on a couch or in a sleeping-chair, and soon became almost a skeleton. Finally my doctor went away for his health, and my husband heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got me some. In two months I got relief and now I am like a new woman and am at my usual weight. I recommend your medicine to every one and so does my husband."—Mrs. TILLIE WATERS, 1135 Knight St., Camden, N.J.

And this one from Mrs. Haddock:

UTICA, Okla.—"I was weak and nervous, not able to do my work and scarcely able to be on my feet. I had backache, headache, palpitation of the heart, trouble with my bowels, and inflammation. Since taking the Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I am better than I have been for twenty years. I think it is a wonderful medicine and I have recommended it to others."—Mrs. MARY ANN HADDOCK, Utica, Oklahoma.

Now answer this question if you can. Why should a woman continue to suffer without first giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial? You know that it has saved many others—why should it fail in your case?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

PLAN BUSINESS
VOTE ON BILLS

Anti-Trust Measures to Be Analyzed and Submitted to 300,000 Merchants.

IS COMMERCE BODY'S PLAN

Hearings on Trust Bills Continue Before House Committee—Stevens Says Trade Board Act Is Unconstitutional.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Co-operation with congress in obtaining the views of business men on pending trust regulation bills was authorized by the chamber of commerce of the United States here at the closing session of its second annual convention. A resolution unanimously adopted directed an analysis of the measures by a special committee and submission of questions involved by referendum to the chamber's membership of nearly 300,000 business men.

Other resolutions adopted approved the proposed substitution of a federal budget plan for the present appropriation system, opposed the exemption of "any class of possible offenders from prosecution under any law," suggested that a department of social welfare be established by the chamber, requested federal investigation of the increase in express rates on shipments of 100 pounds or more, urged prompt action against alleged tariff discriminations by various countries and provided for a committee to investigate the question of fixed resale prices on certain classes of goods.

Study Price Maintenance.
Commissioner of Corporations Davies, in discussing the maintenance of resale prices, said his bureau was making an exhaustive study of the question from an economic viewpoint.

The organization work of the convention was completed with the election of the following officers:

President, John H. Fahey, Boston; vice-presidents, A. B. Farquhar, York, Pa.; A. H. Mulliken, Chicago; J. N. Teal, Portland, Ore., and Robert F. Maddox, Atlanta; treasurer, John Joy Edson, Washington.

Debate Trade Commission.
The interstate commerce committee of the senate, co-operating with members of the house judiciary subcommittee, debated proposed amendments to the interstate trade commission bill, which would exclude from the commission's jurisdiction smaller corporations. That the subject ultimately must be left to President Wilson and Attorney General McReynolds for decision was intimated by some senators as a probability.

Hearings on the trust bills continued before house committees. Representative Stevens of Minnesota, a Republican member of the judiciary committee, declared the pending trade commission bill was unconstitutional in many respects, and later reports were current that the committee would entirely revise the measure.

MURPHY TO SUE BAN JOHNSON

Chicago Cub Head Denounces Chief of American League.

Chicago, Feb. 14.—Pouring forth a scathing denunciation of Byron B. Johnson, president of the American league, Charles W. Murphy, Cub owner, returned from New York. Raging over developments in the Evers episode for which Johnson assailed Murphy, the latter countered with the profane outburst that wound up with the fact that the Cub boss will file suit against the American league leader for conspiracy and slander.

This outburst against Johnson, whose statement that Murphy would have to get out of baseball is responsible for the controversy, was supplemented by other facts concerning the baseball situation. Murphy will not sell his club. The circuit will not be changed and, according to him, cannot be under the national agreement. Thrown in, Murphy offered the information that no power in the land can take a player from his club without reimbursing him. This goes for Evers as well as any other man.

ASKS U. S. TO BAR OUT JAPS

Caminetti Urges Congress to Pass Bill to "Check Asiatic Menace."

Washington, Feb. 14.—Despite an understanding that in deference to the administration Asiatic exclusion legislation would not be agitated in congress pending negotiations with Japan. Commissioner General Caminetti of the immigration bureau urged a house committee "to check the menace of Asiatic immigration."

It had been announced that a meeting of the immigration committee would be confined to the exclusion of Hindus.

"The Chinese and the Japanese," said Mr. Caminetti, "have become so acculturated to the United States that Asiatic immigration is a serious menace to the entire country. The danger is greatest, of course, on the Pacific coast, but it is general as well."

Mrs. Rhinelander Is Dead.
New York, Feb. 14.—Mrs. Mathilda Oakley Rhinelander, a descendant of one of New York's old families and widow of William Rhinelander, whose ancestors settled in this country at New Rochelle in 1686, died after a brief illness at her home here.

TO BLAST SHIPS
FROM HUGE FLOES

Vessels Caught By Ice in Lake Michigan Are Unable to Move.

STEAMER ALABAMA IS FREED

Vessels Threatened With Destruction When Ice Begins to Move—May Use Dynamite Today Off Chicago.

Chicago, Feb. 14.—The Goodrich liner Arizona and the Northern Michigan liner Kansas are in such perilous positions about a mile off the mouth of the river that dynamite may be used today to free them from thousands of tons of ice unless the wind changes.

Two tug boats, the Indiana and the Oscar F. Mayer, went out to assist the imprisoned boats, and the Indiana was caught in the ice and is imprisoned. The Oscar F. Mayer managed to fight a passage back to the river.

Alabama Fights Way Out.
Glad to escape also was the Goodrich liner Alabama, which started out the previous night, got within about half a mile of the Arizona and stuck there until morning.

Though there are no passengers aboard either of the liners, or the tug, their officers and crews number more than one hundred men and women, the latter being attached to the cook's galley. With a solid mass between the ships and shore, and another solid mass pressing against them, from the outside, it is feared that something must soon yield, and that that something will be the sides of the ships.

Several times this has been the fate of big steel lake liners caught in the ice. The ice has crushed the steel and iron sheathing almost like egg shells.

In Dangerous Positions.
So long as the ice has continued to press against the boats they remained above water, but when the wind changed and the ice drifted away the boats went down.

With no prospect for at least twenty-four hours of any change in the wind, and the mercury still clinging close to zero, there seems only one way to break a passage, and that is by dynamite.

ILLINOIS CROP VALUES HIGH

State Leads Nation With Agricultural Products.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Illinois leads all states in the value of its agricultural products, according to a statement issued by the census bureau, based on reports received from its agents. The relative rank of the first nine states in regard to value of 1909 crops showed that Illinois led with a total valuation for all farm crops of $372,000,000; Iowa was second with $315,000,000, Texas third with $298,000,000, followed by Ohio with $230,000,000; Georgia, $227,000,000; Missouri, $221,000,000; Kansas, $215,000,000; New York, $209,000,000, and Indiana, $204,000,000. Illinois ranked first in the production of corn, followed by Iowa and Missouri, and led also in the production of oats, followed by Iowa and Minnesota. Eleven of the leading crops showed a total aggregate value of $4,813,281,000 and corn was the most valuable. The value of the corn crop of the United States was $1,438,554,000.

GEN. CLAY'S GIRL BRIDE DIES

Woman Who Wed Noted American Then 90, at Age of 16, Succumbs.

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 14.—Mrs. Dora Brock Clay Hunt, aged thirty-one, died. Fifteen years ago she was the most talked of young woman in America because Gen. Cassius Marcellus Clay, former minister to Russia, Mexican war soldier, abolitionist editor, lawmaker and a national American figure, married her. Clay was then about ninety years old. Relatives tried to prevent the aged soldier from marrying the girl. Clay established a guard at his home in Madison county, mounted cannon and announced he would shoot any who attempted to interfere. The girl, after a few months, left General Clay, who divorced her. She afterwards married four times.

UNFAIR COAL RATES DENIED

Roads Do Not Discriminate in Illinois and Missouri.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Arguments were submitted to the interstate commerce commission by attorneys representing the Lumaght Coal company, the Business Men's League of St. Louis, a St. Louis publishing company, and attorneys representing the Baltimore and Ohio and Terminal railways in East St. Louis and St. Louis respecting coal rates to those cities from mines in Illinois and points within a hundred miles from the two cities.

T. M. Pierce, representing the carriers, denied that the shippers had shown that the present rate to St. Louis was discriminatory, and that East St. Louis was receiving favorable rates.

Entire Crew Lost With Steamer.
Shoreham, England, Feb. 14.—The entire crew of eight seamen of the steamship My Own was drowned when that vessel was wrecked.

USE "TIZ" IF FEET
ACHE, BURN PUFF UP

"Ah! Nothing Like 'TIZ' for Sore Tired, Sweaty, Calloused Feet and Corns!"

You can be happy-footed just like me. Use "TIZ" and never suffer with tender, raw, burning, blistered, swollen, tired, smelly feet. "TIZ" and only "TIZ" takes the pain and soreness out of corns, callouses and bunions.

As soon as you put your feet in a "TIZ" bath, you just feel the happiness soaking in. How good your poor, old feet feel. They want to dance for joy. "TIZ" is grand. "TIZ" instantly draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause sore, inflamed, aching, sweaty, smelly feet. Get a 25 cent box of "TIZ" at any drug store or department store. Get instant foot relief. Laugh at foot sufferers' woes complain. Because your feet are never, never, going to bother or make you limp any more.

TAX RIOTS IN TOKIO

Two Hundred Persons Arrested for Disturbance.

Tokio, Feb. 14.—Riots started in protest against increased taxation led to the arrest of 200 Japanese in the lower section of Tokio. The disorders were suppressed by 500 police, who used sabers in attacking the crowds. In pursuance of its determination to stifle street demonstrations the government ordered the arrest of several editors of opposition newspapers which had advocated agitation. The papers themselves were suppressed. News meetings, however, were called to insist on resignation of the cabinet.

Mrs. Comiskey Is Buried.
New Haven, Conn., Feb. 14.—The funeral of Mrs. Rose Comiskey, stepmother of Charles A. Comiskey, owner of the Chicago American league baseball team, who died at the home of a brother-in-law here Wednesday, was held. Mrs. Comiskey was seventy years old.

Four Injured in Train Wreck.

LIVED ON

RAW EGGS

Mr. Richard's Experience With Different Diets. Peaches and Buttermilk for Three Years.

Cecilton, Md.—Mr. George Richards, of this place, during the past 12 years, has probably tried more different diets than the average person would ever use in a lifetime.

What he has to say about his experiments, must therefore be highly interesting to anyone suffering from indigestion or stomach troubles of any kind.

He says: "For more than 12 years, I suffered with stomach troubles, and paid hundreds of dollars for doctor bills and medicines. I was also operated on for piles.

I lived on dried peaches and buttermilk for nearly three years. The only thing that would not give me pain was raw eggs.

I was a physical wreck. I could not sleep, and was as near crazy as a man could well be.

I must say that after taking two 25-cent packages of Theodor's Black-Draught, it did me more good than all I ever spent for other medicines.

I have been working daily on the farm ever since, and I am as hard as iron. This purely vegetable remedy has been in successful use for more than 70 years. Try it. But be sure that it's 'Theodor's'.

30,000 Persons Publicly Recommend Our Remedy. Some Are Dixon People.

Over one hundred thousand have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. For backache, kidney, urinary ills, Thirty thousand signed testimonials are appearing now in public print.

Some of them are Dixon people. Some are published in Dixon.

No other remedy shows such proof. Follow this Dixon man's example.

W. Walford, blacksmith, 843 Walnut Ave., Dixon, Ill., says: "I had quite a little trouble from my back and kidneys. The kidney secretions were irregular in passage and when I stooped, I had pain across my ribs. My back often ached. I used several boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and they made me well. The pains left and the action of my kidneys was regulated."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Walford had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo N. Y.

Voracious Fish.

At a meeting of the Kent and Essex sea fisheries committee, held at Fishmongers' hall, London, it was stated that the Thames is periodically visited by shoals of voracious fish, who devour the usual inhabitants of that calm estuary. Forty years ago a great raid was made on the Thames by fish called "Penlans." So voracious were they that they practically cleared out every other fish in the river. After a long period the "Penlans" were now paying another visit to the Thames estuary, and were eating the white-bait.

Want Nothing but Gold.

Tin of good quality is regarded as a nuisance in some parts of Alaska, where it is thrown aside by the gold miners. In the richest spots as much as half a pound of tin to the pan is reported, which at the present price of the ore would give the gravers a value, not allowing for costs of mining or transportation, of $18 to $20 a yard, according to assay.

JAMES R. GARFIELD

James R. Garfield, secretary of the interior under President Roosevelt, has announced his candidacy for the Progressive nomination for governor of Ohio.

PRESIDENT IS STILL ILL

Wilson Unable to Attend Jersey Reception.

His Wife and Cabinet Members Give Fete—Nation's Chief Executive to Rest Until Monday.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The president spent a second day in bed because of a severe cold. President Wilson did not attend the special reception given at the White House for New Jersey Democrats, including Governor Fielder, members of the legislature and convention delegates and electors.

The only other engagement the president had—a cabinet meeting—had been canceled early in the day, and it had been expected that he would be able to leave his room to receive his New Jersey guests. After a consultation between Secretary Tumulty and Dr. Cary T. Grayson, United States navy, the president's physician, however, it was decided that to go from a room of even temperature to the White House's crowded parlors would be unwise. A statement was issued saying the president had insisted the reception be held, notwithstanding his indisposition, and declaring that the cold was "responding satisfactorily to treatment."

The president will rest at least until Monday.

Mrs. Wilson, assisted by Vice-President and Mrs. Marshall, the members of the cabinet and their wives, received the visitors, while the marine band played in the court facing the blue room. Outside of the New Jersey circle the only guests present were William F. McCombs, the Democratic national chairman, and Mrs. McCombs, and the members of the Democratic national committee.

U. S. LANDS FORCE IN HAITI

Sailors Will Protect Americans as New President Fights Rival.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Thirty-five American bluejackets were landed from the cruiser San Francisco at Cape Haitien to protect foreigners and their property in Haiti. Commander Harrison reported to the navy department that he expected a crisis today and was ready to land more men. The commander had received information of the approach of Haitian federal forces by land and sea in Provisional President Zamor's effort to crush the power of General Theodore, who has set up a separate government at Cape Haitien. It is expected the American commander will insist on the establishment of a neutral zone into which Americans and other foreigners and noncombatants may retire for safety in case of battle.

WILL PAY PART OF BANK LOSS

Memphis Directors to Return $300,000 at Least.

Memphis, Tenn., Feb. 14.—The directors of the Mercantile bank met in the office of Luke E. Wright, former secretary of war. Within a short time announcement of some plan of settlement with depositors will be made. It is known that the directors have arranged to raise at least $300,000 to reimburse losers. C. K. G. Billings of Chicago, who has extensive holdings in Memphis, is reported to have agreed to join a movement for the reorganization of the bank. He is said to have offered to invest $500,000 in the reorganized bank.

MRS. ROCKEFELLER IS WEAK

So Feeble She Is Carried From Train on Return to Tarrytown.

Tarrytown, N. Y., Feb. 14.—Mrs. John D. Rockefeller returned from Cleveland and is now at her home at Pocantico Hills. To escape the newspaper men Mrs. Rockefeller left the train at Philippe Manor, two miles north of Tarrytown. Mr. Rockefeller met her in a limousine car. She was so feeble that she had to be carried from the train.

Treasury Finds Bills.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Great satisfaction was manifested by United States treasury officials over the recovery of $1,250 in currency lost or January 26. The money had been misplaced in the vaults.

Two New Things in the Pickle Line in Bottles Are Out This Week.

One is an Onion Salad which has proved to be a great repeater wherever it has been tested at thorough. It is put up in about a 12 ounce bottle (early a put) and sells for 10c.

The other is a cucumber pickle mixed with onion and is put up in pure Olive oil. Owing to the high price of pure oil it is put up in a smaller package than the salad and retails for 15c per bottle.

We would like to have you try these goods and let us know if they are worthy of a regular place on our shelves. This is the only way we have of knowing what new things to keep, put it up for the public's decision.
